up, up and away

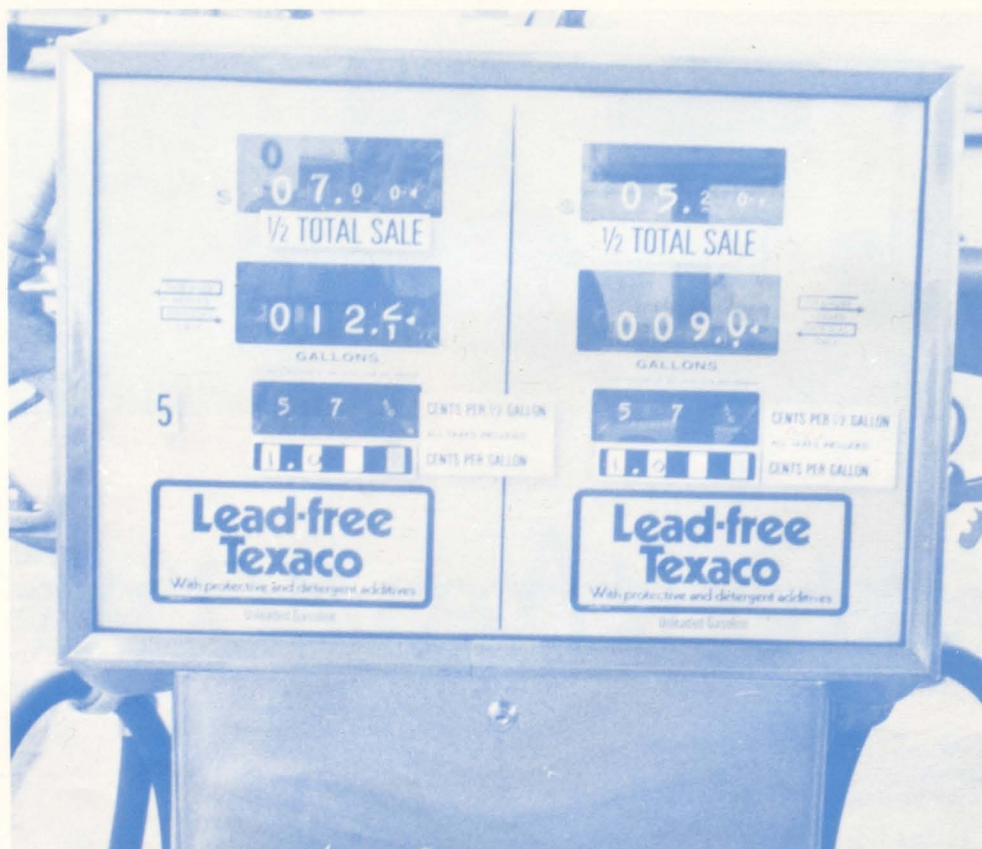

From our balloon we look back at '79 and see a lot of changes. The year as a whole, was average but we made the best of it. Outside of school, 1979 brought with it Three-Mile- Island, the energy crisis, and out-of-sight gas prices. Along with world-wide news makers, like the hostages in Iran, '79 brought many new fashions like double-belts, plaid, split, and pleated skirts, and Candies. For boys, there were plaid shirts, Mork suspenders, and 3-piece suits. Everyone indulged in his favorite fantasy with tee-shirts and jeans. Of course, the number one colors were blue and gold.

into the 80's!

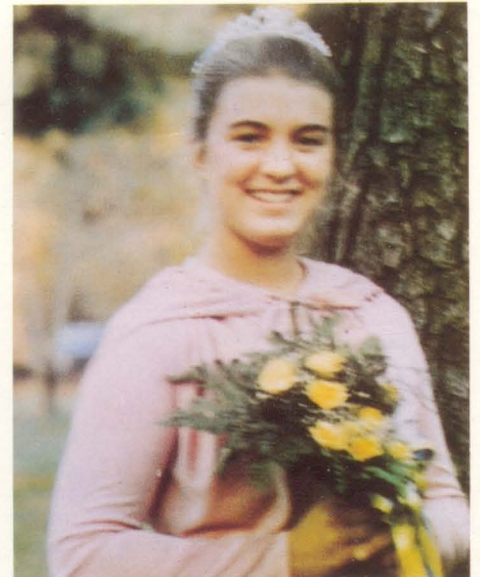

Our balloon skims us over many 1979 memories. The Christmas Dance will be remembered by Tim and Phyllis who danced the night away. Seniors had a special memory created the day they were measured for cap and gowns. We all will remember, but would like to forget, the tremendous increase in gas prices to over $1.00 a gallon. Gold prices also rose to over $800 per ounce. Wi Hi saw too much vandalism with break-ins and broken windows. And we won't forget the tear gas smell in the office after the safe was broken open. The walls received gallons and globs of green paint in preparation for Middle States evaluation. A strong Sophomore class won Homecoming Float competition. Carol posed with Santa and whispered her "wants" in his ear. Posters dotted the walls, all warning against drug abuse. There was even an alcohol and drug prevention center set up. Finally, our spare time was filled with horror stories like Amityville Horror, Carrie, and Halloween.

Even though Wi Hi is not beautiful structurally, there was much beauty to be seen around the school during '79 and '80. There were people doing beautiful things, like Sheila and friends cheering our guys on; and like Carla who was "high" on football (goalposts, anyway); and like the Vo-Ag students. There were also "things" beautiful in the eyes of some and not others - things like motorcycles and a potter's wheel. And there was undeniable beauty in our Homecoming Queen, Carole. And the freeze produced a fairy-tale fountain in the park.

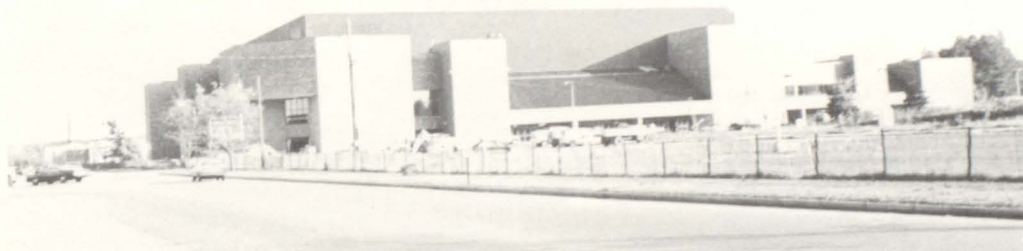

To prepare for the 80's, our Vo-Ag students were busy beautifying the school school with an array of plants, including these poinsettias. Felicia, also preparing for the 80's, studied to be a nurse. Every year at Wi Hi, Sophomores prepare for their future by spending two concentrated weeks in the career center. Salisbury and Wicomico County prepared for the 80's by building a new Youth and Civic Center large enough to serve our needs for years, they hope. And finally, everyone at Wi Hi prepared for the 80's by gaining knowledge, at least, that's what we were here for.

Up, up, and away into the 80's — and Wi Hi students were ready! All kinds of moods existed or were created among the students. Cheerleaders, in all their glory, worked long and hard to make us cheer — or laugh. Sitting in English sometimes led us into boredom but sometimes, into a dream world. When the 3 o'clock bell rang, everyone, including Kim and Joyce, burst with the thought and taste of freedom. Football games and pep rallies gave everyone a chance to get rowdy and blow off steam. Even Pam is about to be carried away by her big blue balloon.

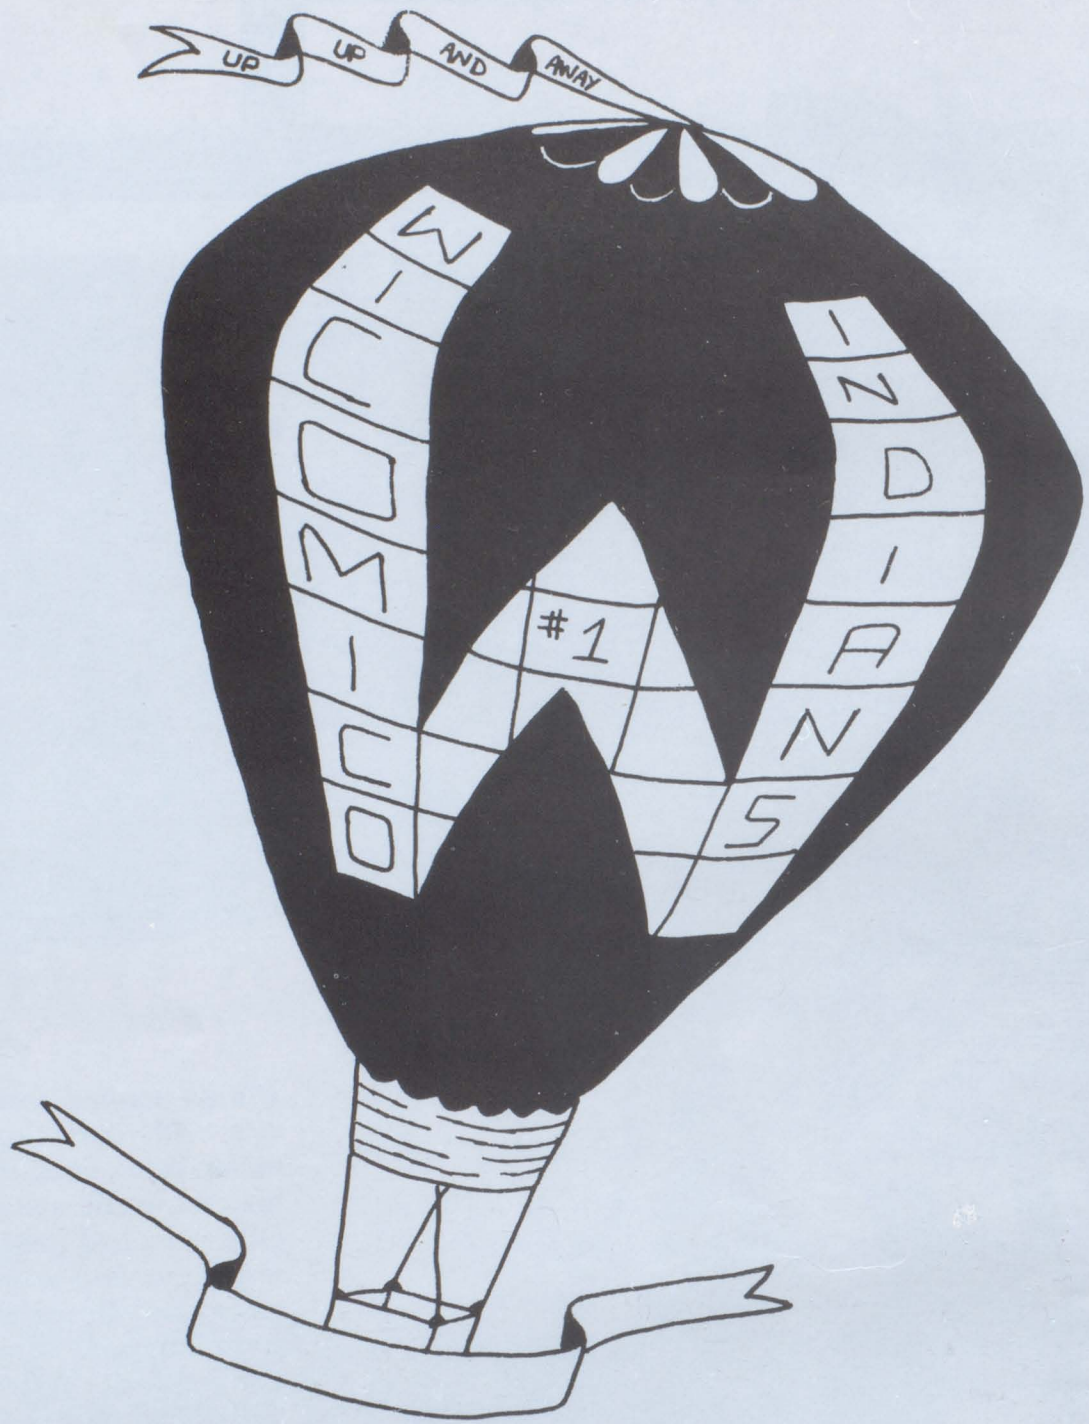

*As we entered the '80's, our friendships, our activities, and our good times grew. At the Christmas Dance, Laverne had a good time as she listened to the rock music of Mars. At Vo-Tech, a feminine Cindy learned her profession as a welder. And lunch time was everyone's favorite time to chew the fat — one way or the other. The halls were lined with groups of students finding ways to cut class or to smoke now that the rest rooms were patrolled. After Stage Door, Francis, Valerie, and Tom strutted in all their thespian glory. Study halls were always filled with laughter (?) and fun(?).*

We all looked forward to the 80's with curiosity and optimism. Brian wondered whether his cast would attract the girls. Others looked forward to winning in various ways. The band tooted and fluted and pumped and bumped through band competitions and the teams huffed and puffed and strained and drained themselves. Deca students look forward to getting money-making jobs for a lifetime. Tricia looked forward to graduation, and beyond. On the other hand, some just looked forward to getting their pictures in the yearbook!

senior class history

Four years ago, in 1972, our class was becoming a reality. Now we are the graduating class of 1980, starting a decade with new experiences and fresh ideas. However the time has come to reflect on our years together and remember the times that have come to mean so much to us.

We entered our freshman year with a little uncertainty as to what lay ahead of us but soon gained the determination to establish the class of '80 in WiHi. As our part in Homecoming activities, we entered our float entitled "Smoke out Kent."

Although we didn't win, we were proud of Carole Wells and Joyce Hall who represented us on the Homecoming Court.

We were definitely headed in the right direction as we returned for our sophomore year. We were really anxious to get things going. Our treasury was happily boosted by endless bake sales, cash prizes for placing first in the can drive and for being the loudest class at the pep rally here at school. Homecoming activities included our float, "How the Cowardly Lion Lost His Courage," and attendants Carole Wells and Terri Mills represented us. The Class of '80 was really beginning to come alive and work together as a group.

Our last year as underclassmen soon approached. As we entered our junior year, we knew that this was one of our most important years, as we had many new things to prepare for. Homecoming events were held early that year. We entered our float, "T-t-that's all, folks," and, although it didn't first place, we knew that working together was what counted. Our Homecoming representatives were again Carole Wells and Terri Mills. In the spring, we ordered our class rings and during all Sports Night, we won the trophy.

We had many fund raisers as we were getting our treasury ready for our senior year. They included sales of candy, calendars, candles, ice cream, and a junior 50-cent day. They were all big successes and helped us greatly.

Our biggest endeavor as Juniors came when we organized the Junior/Senior Banquet. We wanted to make this night special for the class of '79. The evening included a dinner, presentation of awards, and a dance afterwards. That also proved to be a success and everyone enjoyed himself.

That year helped us get ready for the most important and memorable year we'd ever have. It led up to what we had only dreamed of our Senior year.

Officers of the class of 1980 were: President - Les Jones; Vice-president - Tyrone Bullock; Treasurer - Rick Taylor; Secretary - Meg Brown; and Historian - Patricia McLeod. Following the tradition of the class of '79, our first major activity was the Senior Fair. It went over very well and helped us in raising money for the Prom (along with the ever-popular candy sale). Our next major activity was the construction of our float for Homecoming. Our entry was entitled "Leave Easton In Ruins", Representing the Senior class on the Homecoming court were Deshirl Rankins and Joyce Hall. Carole Wells was crowned Homecoming queen.

After Christmas vacation, a mixture of excitement and confusion mounted as we set out to prepare for our prom, which was held May 9, 1980. Our theme was Moonlight and Roses, and the band was Crossroads. It was followed by the Prom breakfast, sponsored by our parents.

Our class colors were ice blue and silver; our flower, baby blue carnation; our class song, "Let's All Live and Give Together", and our motto, "I do not fear tomorrow for tomorrow is only a beginning, and I am ready to begin".

Other end-of-the- year programs included Senior Awards and Baccalaureate service.

As our year came to an end, we realized what we had gained. We had all made very special friends who will always be an part of our lives. We realized that although this may seem to be an end, this is only a beginning as exemplified by our motto. We have been lucky to have the support of our family, friends, and teachers. A special thanks goes to our advisors, Mrs. Brenda Cox, Mr. David Underwood, and Mr. Billy Burgess who were always there to guide us along. As we go our separate ways we will always look back and know that our history lives on.

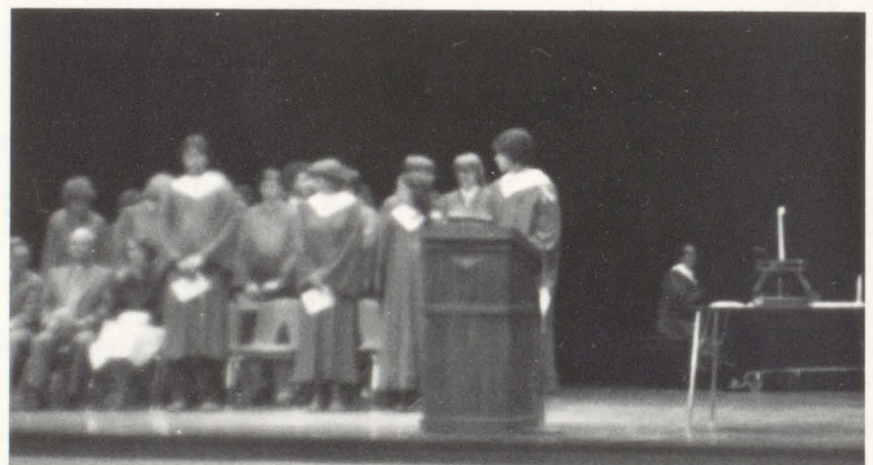

senior fair fares well

In spite of one postponement due to rain, the Senior Fair was held successfully in early Sept. WJDY livened up the day by broadcasting live from the site. Something was available for every taste — from the popular dunkin' g booth, to clowning clowns, to a sponge throw, to a shooting gallery, to food (of course). Mr. Reddish helped set up the booths which were loaned to us by the Beaver Run PTA.

honor society inducts

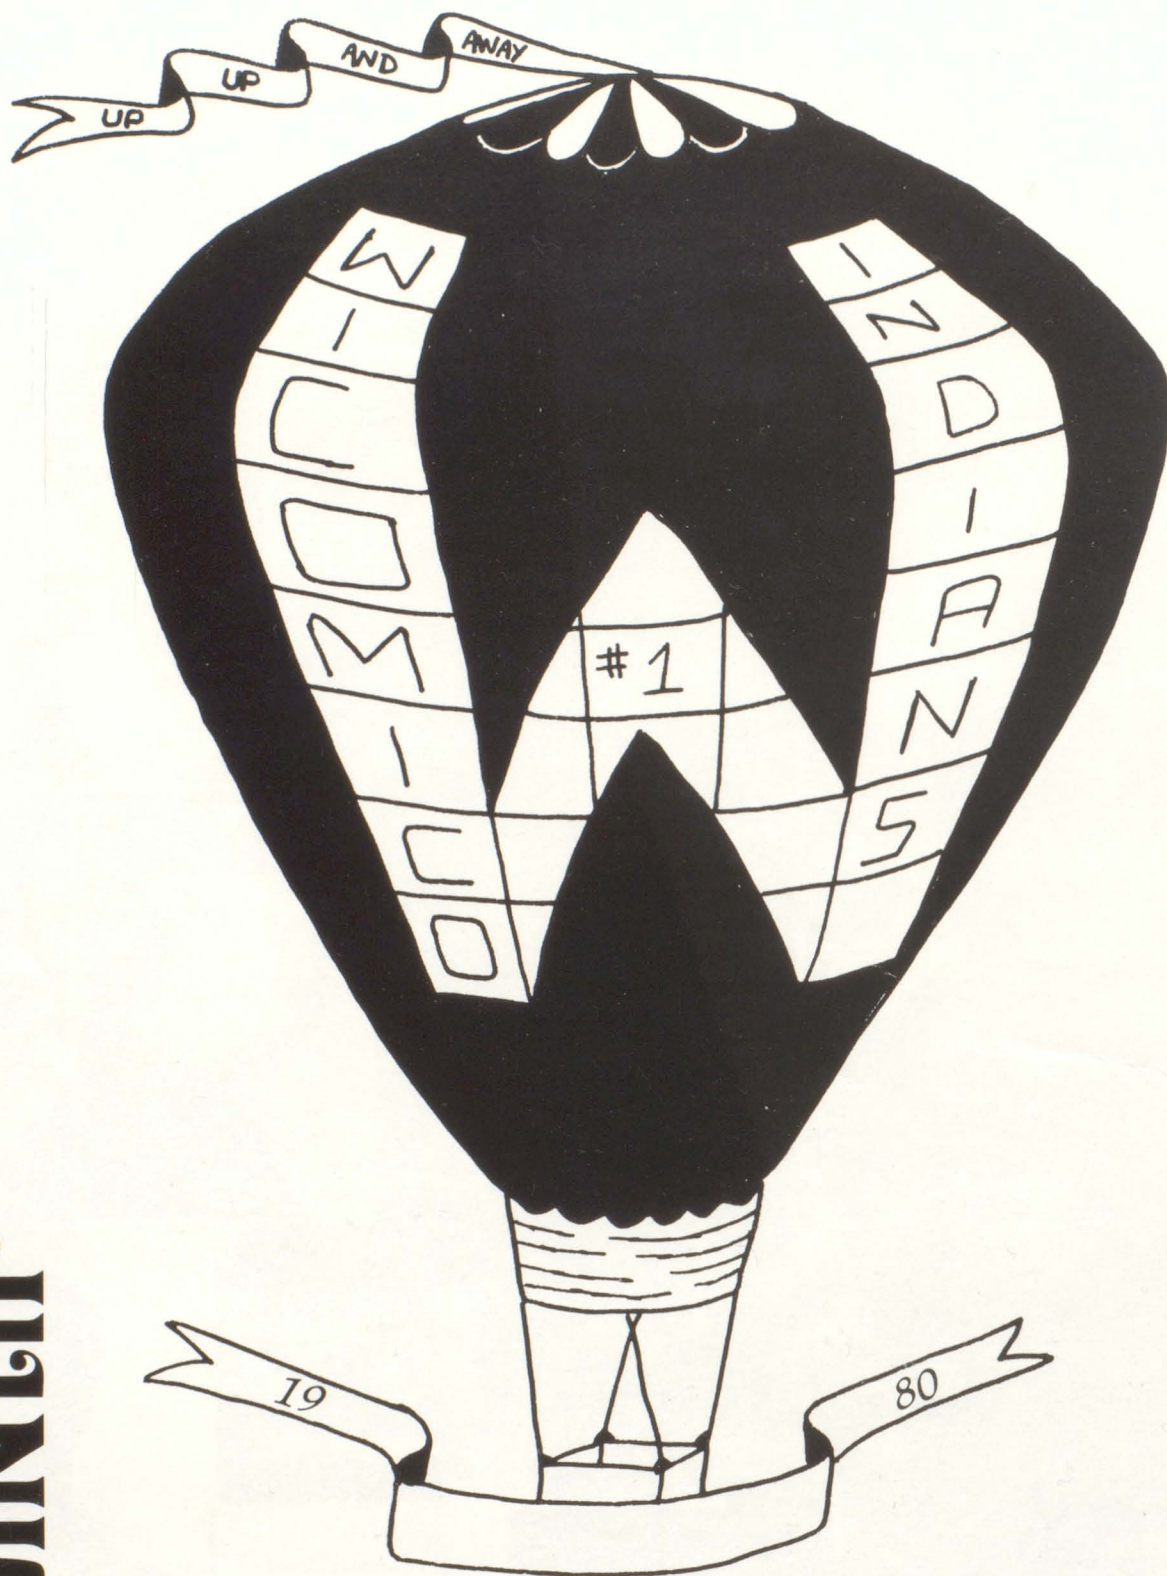

Each year in April, the Wi Hi National Honor Society inducts sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have achieved a 3.6 average. Around twenty new members were received this year. This is also the time of year new officers are installed and everyone is reminded of the principles of the NHS. Outgoing officers are: president, Brent Truitt; vice-president, Sarah Shafer; secretary, Laura Lewis; treasurer, Arthur Smith; and historian, Jeff Parker.

in memoriam

nevins thomas foskey, jr.

June 1, 1963 - October 27, 1979

Tom Foskey was killed in a tragic accident during this school year. Remembering him still brings tears to the eyes of his friends.

Even though Tommy had been at Wi Hi only a short time, he had gained a place among us. He was, according to his friends, a good friend — someone to trust and depend on; a good listener. He enjoyed being at home, but he also liked boxing at the Boys' Club. He liked "Please Don't Go", but he also responded to Charlie Daniels' "Devil Went Down To Georgia." A Vo-tech junior in masonry, Tommy's interest also included go-carts, stock-car races, pumping irons, and girl-watching at O.C.

We won't hear him yell "Man!" anymore; we won't share a swim with him anymore; but we will miss him. Let's remember not the death but the life of Tommy Foskey.

the class of 1981 has a great desire to be better than the others before them. we will achieve this through sticking together, working harder and participating more in class activities. we will succeed. we are the optimists.

junior class history

The Juniors opened their last year as underclassmen in September headed by Teddy Matthews as president, James Parker as vice-president, Lisa K. Culver as secretary, Sarah Shafer as treasurer and Jessica Mears as historian. Our class advisors were Miss Donna Rusk and Mr. Charles Cross.

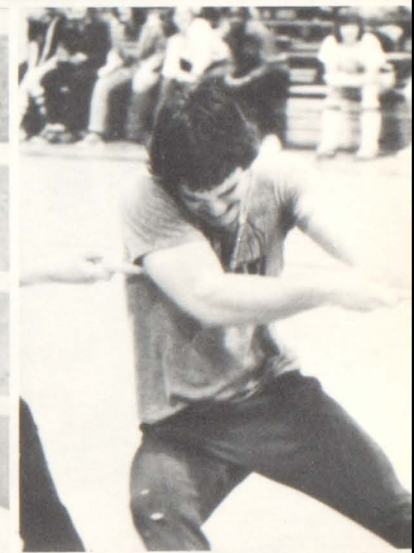

The first major event on the Junior class agenda was Homecoming, held on October 28. The long hours spent on the float paid off. We only missed second place by half a point and came in third. The main feature of the float was a Wi Hi football player reaching up for the eternal flame of the Olympics. Many thanks go to Mr. Nelson for his help and advice on the mechanical operations on the float. The Junior attendants for Homecoming were Tammy Myers, Kristi Richins, and Sherry Corbin. Also many thanks to James Bendler for the use of his barn.

In order to pay for such a float and all other projects that lay ahead, the Juniors had bake sales at most soccer games and sold wreaths at Christmasland. The biggest money maker of all was the candy sticks. All our efforts in All Sports Night paid off, too. We dominated the money drop and took eight first places to win a victory that night.

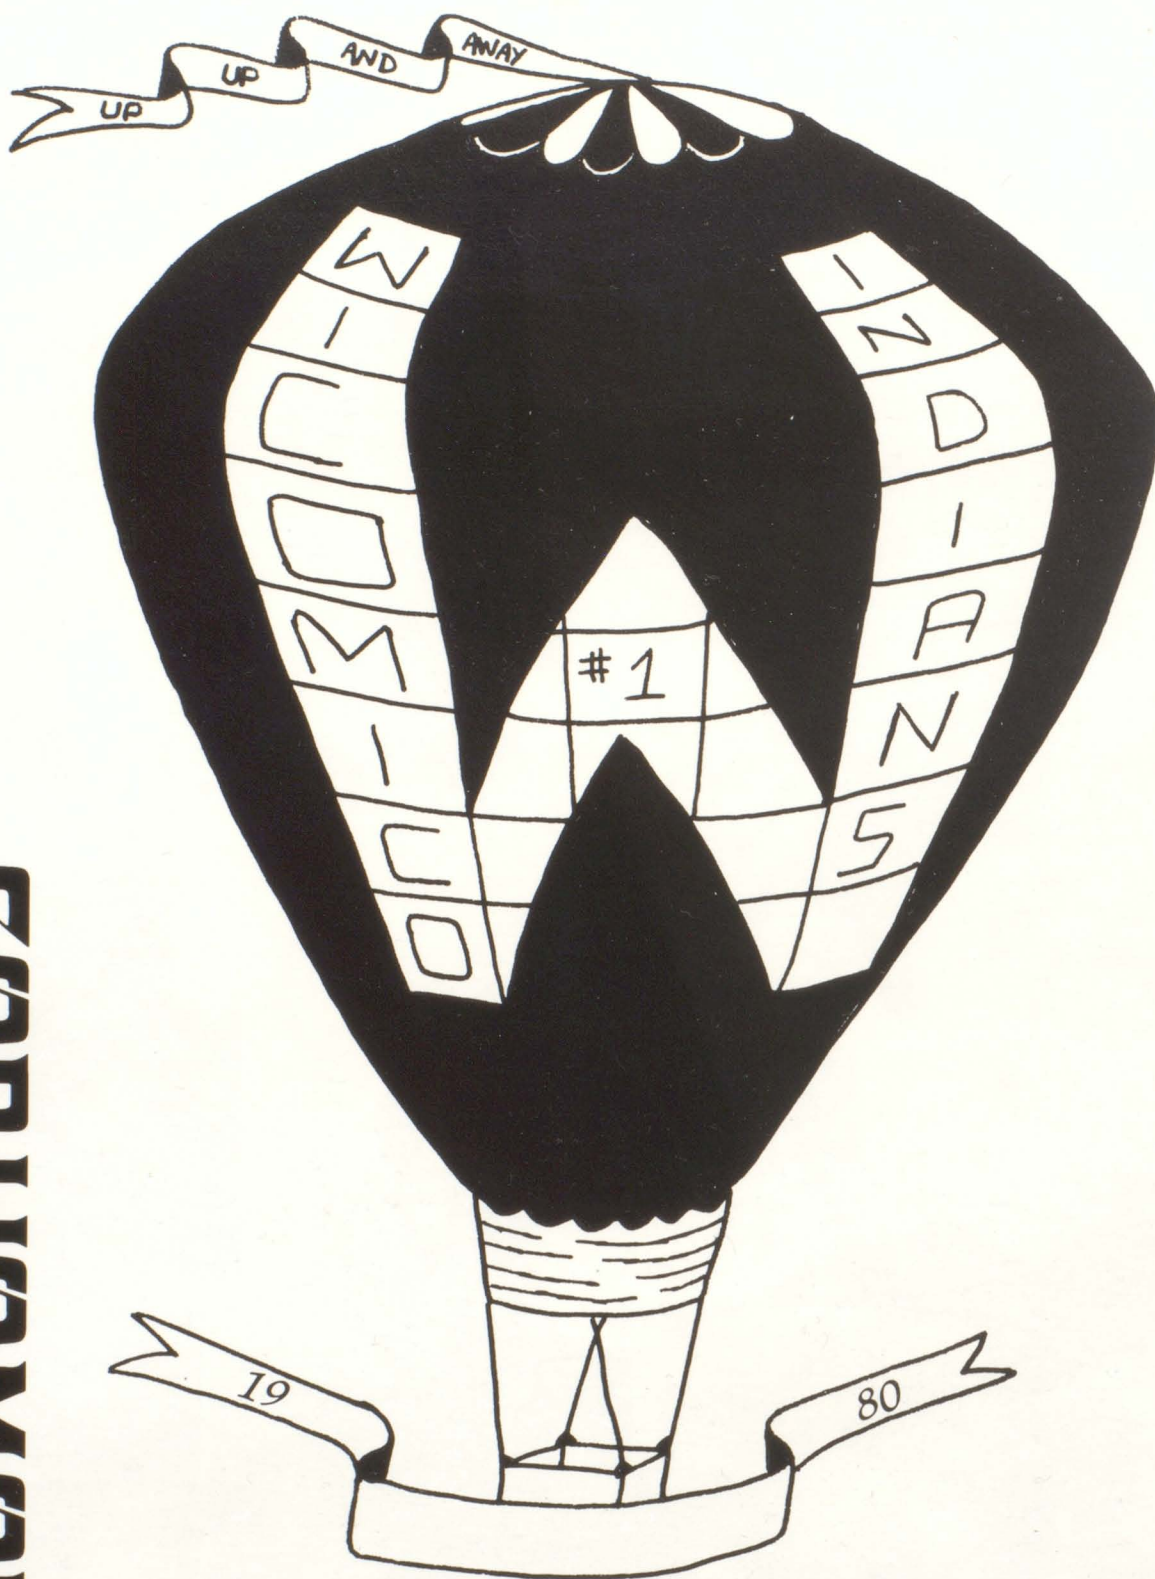

Next on our agenda was the Junior/Senior Banquet. The planning took place in early February and didn't end until April 16th, the day of the Banquet. The Banquet was one of the largest in the county with over 200 people attending. The evening started with Dan Connell entertaining at dinner, followed by Wright-n-Wrong. The dance was a great success with Music sponsored by B-bent Sound. Many thanks go to the freshman and sophomores for their help at the Banquet. A very special thanks goes to Gayle Bowden for the cake she made for the dance.

The Juniors are now ready to face any challenge that may be ahead for them next year and in the years that follow.

Twelve dollars! What kind of float can we build with twelve dollars?? With one thing or another, we got enough to build a first place float. We held a contest for float design which Ann Meilhammer won with her design, "WiHi Takes The Gold" It featured Olympic rings, a gold medal hanging from goalposts, and a "pregnant" football which was supposed to revolve. The football had other ideas. Ann was overall chairman, ably assisted by Connie Hoprich, Carol Bean and a large number of working sophs. Jamie Simm's garage buzzed with activity while her parents kept our strength up with snacks and soft drinks. We worked hard, and it was worth it. WE WON!!!

After a successful freshman year, we returned to Wi-Hi in September as seasoned students. No longer confused, lost, or wandering, we knew what we were doing and we had our goals. With the outstanding leadership of Ann Meilhammer as president, Leigh Hurley as vice-president, Sandy Layton as secretary, and Susan Steelman as treasurer, we had no doubts about achieving these goals.

That is, no doubts after we raised our treasury from $9.67 to $130.00. And did we work hard to raise that money! We had a bake sale, candy sale (nicknamed the "Super Sophomore Sweets"), Slave Day, a booth at the Senior Fair, an Art Contest, and finally a Donation Day. But the work paid off when we turned out a first-place Homecoming float named "Wi-Hi Takes the Gold". We didn't do quite as well on All Sports Night, pulling only a thirdplace title, but it was fun and a lot of Sophomores helped out.

We would like to thank our class sponsors, Mr. Blankenship and Mrs. Jackie Jones, for all their help and guidance. It's been an excellent year, and we're planning to make our junior year even better. Watch out Wi-Hi - '82 is coming up and out!!

"Where am I"? "Where should I be"? "How did I get in a greenhouse"? "Can we really cut for 20 days"? Freshmen, although no one had trouble finding the cafeteria or the exits, asked many questions like these. During the first few days of school, freshmen were afraid, confused, but glad to be here at last. This did not last long, however, before we gathered ourselves together and got down to it. First, we elected our officers, Anna Emond, president; Susan Townsend, vice-president; Ruth Richins, secretary; Lori Shockley, treasurer. Our second chore was an Olympian Homecoming effort. We produced Wi Hi jumping hurdles on the way to a gold medal. Even though we placed last, it was a good experience. Representing us in the Homecoming Court were Rondolyn Johnson and Ruth Richins. They were a pretty addition to the court. Our money-raising efforts centered on a coin drop at the Senior Fair and a candy sale held in April. This added a bit to our treasury. School was full of Reese cup and Hershey bar wrappers, so it must have been a success. All Sports Night brought out only a few freshmen, and we ended up in fourth place, beating only the faculty. We simply needed more bodies. Our class had fair participation this year, but we are ending with a real determination to do more, to do it better, and to do it together next year. Our thanks to class sponsors Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Insley.

FINE ARTS WEEK

Fine Arts Week, funded by S.G.A. and The Wicomico County Fine Arts League, has become a tradition here at Wi Hi. Over the past several years Fine Arts Week has grown and now the whole school and even people in the community participate in it. To begin the week, a drama performance, "Bell, Book and Candle", was presented by various Wi Hi students and teachers. During the week there were many workshops pertaining to such things as poetry, dance, art and music. These workshops were conducted by an array of guest speakers from our community. To supplement these workshops various contests were held for the students to show off their talents. Also, Crisfield High School put on an assembly involving interpretive dance. To end Fine Arts Week on a good "note", the U.M.E.S. Jazz Ensemble performed Jazz, Pop, Soul and Rock tunes.

The Wi-Hi Annual Christmas Dance was held on December 15, 1979, from 8:00 to 11:30. Entertainment was provided by Mars from Baltimore. Approximately 80 students attended. Everyone had a marvelous time, sending their regrets to those who chose not to attend. Sincere thanks go out to Kay Thomas and her committee for the fine decorations and refreshments provided at the dance.

For the last three or four years, we have been lucky (or unlucky) enough to have unscheduled days off - snow days. These are the great days when we wake up, hear there is NO SCHOOL! and have an entire day all to ourselves. No school, no work, no responsibilities — just please ourselves. We had two of them this year. As you can see, some students used their "talents" to create a "Mr. Wi Hi", while others formed a "Polar Bear Club" in the eating area. Their cold intentions didn't last any longer than the snow, however

snow, snow, snow days

On February 17, nostalgia filled the air when the Cheerleaders sponsored Greaser Day. Everyone who participated had a great time dressing in clothes from the 50's. It was wild seeing clothes from a different era. From poodle skirts to zoot suits, they were all there.

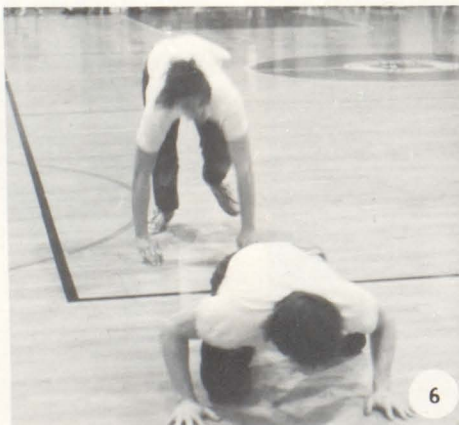

This year All Sports Night was held on March 24. It began with the coin drop which was won by the Juniors. There was keen competition among the classes and the faculty. Events included crab race, leap frog, wheelbarrow relay, human tunnel race, sack race, balloon burst, izzy-dizzy relay, back-to-back and tug of war among others. When all points were tallied, the Juniors came out on top followed by the Seniors, Sophomores, Faculty and Freshmen.

This year, 45 students in two classes were taught by Lynn Bratten of the Home Economics Department. The highlight of this year's course in Marriage and Family Living was a "mock wedding and reception". It involved everything from writing invitations through throwing the bouquet after the reception. First there were invitations to be sent. Then, there were food preparations. Each class provided punch, snacks, and a real wedding cake. Students were also asked to dress for the occasion. The brides from each class, Terri Riley and Teresa Collins, wore a long white gowns with veils. Both grooms, Les Jones and Arthur Smith, dressed accordingly. To end each reception, the brides threw their bouquets.

1980 JR-SR BANQUET

On Wednesday, April 16, 1980, the Junior class threw its annual bash for the Seniors. With over 200 people attending, it was an unqualified success. The evening began with a delicious meal. During the meal, Dan Connell sang and played several selections on the guitar. After dinner, entertainment was provided by Wright and Wrong. Next came the awards, presented by the master of ceremonies, Gary Connell. After the presentations, everyone headed out to the dance floor and rocked to the beat of B- Bent Sound. Thanks go to Gayle Bowden for baking and decorating such an enormous and superb "80-81" cake. This, along with the punch, was served during the dance. The decorations done by Juniors under the leadership of Terri Tonelli, were glittering stars, streamers, and light blue carnations. The back drop of moonlight and roses also helped to enhance the atmosphere. The Juniors gave their all and really worked together to make the banquet super.

SPORTS

The 1979 football season was a dismal failure in comparison to the previous year's 9-1 record. Despite heavy graduation losses, the Indians managed victories over Queen Anne's and Kent, en route to a 2-8 mark. The Queen Anne's game was the offense highlight of the season as the Indians rolled up 37 points, their highest output of the year. The Tribe defense had its strongest outing in the 13-6 victory over Kent. Major disappointments were the losses to other city schools. Parkside scored twice after W.H. turnovers and upset the Tribe 12-0. James M. Bennett handed the Indians a 27-7 setback. Despite the poor team performance, several outstanding individual efforts were recorded. Ed Taylor led the team as he gathered MVP and Offensive Player of the Year honors, in addition to a second-team All Bayside Conference berth. Captain Bryan Travis was named the Offensive Lineman of the Year and also captured second-team All Conference status. Captain Jim Willey was Defensive Player of the Year and was the only Indian to receive first-team All Conference honors. All Bayside Conference honorable mentions went to senior Chuck Buchanan for his devastating defensive play, and to junior Jaenell Downes, who often turned the quarterback sneak into a long gainer. The Indians started many underclassmen this year and look forward to a strong season next year.

All teams can say one thing: if you stick together as a team, you can play well. This must have been working for the WiHi girls as they finished with a fabulous 7-3 record. Led by Coach Betty Jane Dashiell and Co-captains Brenda Prushansky and Wendy West, the team advanced to the Region 4 MPSSAA Tournament held at Parkside. Although we didn't do well the experience our team gained was invaluable. This year's MVP was Junior Joyce Rieben. With only three seniors leaving, next year's team will be the tops.

wihi soccer "heads" the league

This year's soccer team exhibited a 7-3 worksheet. With defense being emphasized, WiHi established a new school record by allowing only seven goals for the season. A new shut-out record of six games was chalked up by goalkeeper Jackie Walls. The highlight of the season had to be our 2-0 win over previously undefeated J.M.B. During this game, outstanding performances were turned in by John Massey, Les Jones (MVP) and Sang Kang. Seniors who will be missed next season are Steve Robinson, Les Jones, John Massey, Jackie Walls, Richie Wright, and Paul Willis. This season has been a good one, and the team next year will miss those leaving.

My leg - My leg!!!

Hmm . . . Hmm . . . and Hmmm . . . so say the coaches.

The Mighty JV Indians finished the '79 season with an outstanding 7-1-1 record. The one tie came after a grueling battle against the Stephen Decatur Sea Hawks, and our only loss came at the end of the season against Bennett. With Rick Burns at quarterback, and Mark Conte and Eddie Kirkman as team captains, the team fought through a hard and terrific season. Burns, Conte and Kirkman worked hard but could not have done it had it not been for the motivation and spirit of the whole team. Although we had a small team we made up for it in our enthusiasm.

Oops, I missed!

The 79-80 golf team had a very successful season this year. For the first time since golf has been here at WI-HI, they finished first in a regular season match. This could not have been accomplished if it were not for the spectacular play of Vince Cherrix, Jeff Parker, David Malone, and Mike Davis. Vince Cherrix, MVP, and Jeff Parker were two of some one-hundred and twenty-four who qualified to participate in the rotate tournament. The golf team finished an overall second for the season. The top four golfers will be returning next year and we are looking forward to even a better season than this year.

The 1979 Cross Country Team started off like champions and ended the same way. Outstanding performances were normal all season. The "Boys", as they referred to themselves, shut out more opponents this season than in any previous season, and Brent Truitt set a new course record. Team captains were Rick Ellwanger, Jim Lashley, Brent Truitt, Scott Smith, and Kevin Whall. MVP was senior Rick Ellwanger. This year's killer team will be leaving very capable replacements, but a 10-0 record will be a tough act to follow. The girls team, too, never had to worry about being in the winners' circle for they had a spot reserved. Freshman Susan McDaniel led the pack, but the other girls lacked nothing in the talent department. The team captains were Paula Scott and Susan McDaniel, and the MVP was Susan McDaniel. Next year's team will be just as strong, since no member is leaving.

WiHi's poor 1-9 record this year was quite discouraging. However, the team was young and inexperienced. Only 5 were returning players, and all of them were underclassmen. The five returning players were chosen as captains. They were Sarah Townsend, Cherri Parker, Laura Rogan, Jaki Ringgold, and Chris Michaud. Cherri Parker was voted MVP. The team loses only one seniors, Sherri Bennett, so Mrs. Holliday and Mr. Stanley should have a more experienced and successful team next year.

This year's J.V. team finished their fine season with an overall record of 10-7. The tribe had a strong offense. Led by Coach Roberts, the Indians turned in their finest season in four years. Outstanding players for the tribe included co-captains Floyd Wilson who led the scoring with a 14.5 average per game; Pat Morris, who averaged 14.1 points per game and had 9.2 rebounds. Racking up 11.2 points and 12.3 rebounds per game was Mike Bullock. David Dorman dished out 116 assists on the season and led the team in denial points. All of these players moved up to Varsity at the season's end. It was a definite overall team effort that brought them through the season.

The Varsity Basketball team recorded another fine season, ending with a 16-8 overall record. Coach Waller successfully guided the Indians to the Region IV Finals, where we were eliminated by Cambridge-S.D. at SSC.

The Indians again won the City Championship, beating J.M.B. twice and Parkside three times. The tribe also finished second in the Conference. Seniors Scott Smith, Jackie Walls, and Paul Butler, were selected for the Bayside All-Stars in the First Annual Eastern Shore Classic. Smith led the conference in free-throw percentage: 88, and broke six previous records, including the most assists in a single season: 193! Jackie Walls led the tribe in rebounding and broke the record for most steals in a season: 66. Paul Butler took the team scoring title with 328 points, with a cool 14.3 average.

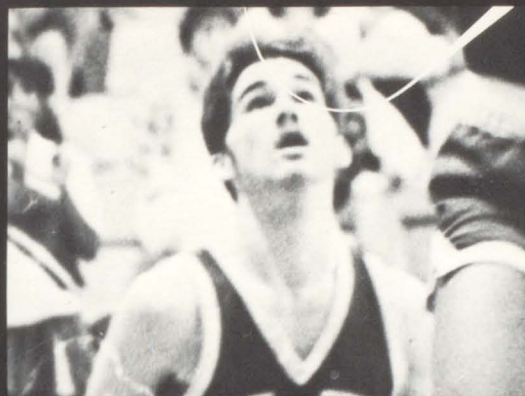

Freshman Brian Butler was the teams' second leading scorer, and also broke two records in his maiden year. Marcus Carr was a sparkplug for the Tribe with a 10-point average. All in all, it was a vintage year for the Indians.

The WiHi girls finished the season this year with a fair 5-12 record. Even though they didn't win too many, most of the games were close. The heartbreaker was losing the last game to Bennett 64-63. This year's team was led by Joyce Rieben (MVP) in both scoring and rebounding. Freshman Susan McDaniel contributed well to the scoring and rebounding columns, too. Co-captains were Brenda Prushansky and Joyce Rieben. Since they will lose only one senior this year (Brenda Prushansky), next year, a seasoned team will pound the courts looking for revenge. Bayside Conference, be on the lookout for Holloway's Hook-Score-and Rebound force!

Winter Track is a fairly new sport at WiHi and is not yet considered a varsity sport. Jeff Stewart, Larry Wilson, and Tyrone Bullock all had outstanding performances in the state championship. This year Jeff Cathell set a new state record in the 800 meter relay race with a time of 1:37.8. They also competed in the new Civic Center Invitational Indoor Meet where the girls had six first places, two second places, and three third places. The boys also had six first places, six second places, and five third places.

Wrestling brought more glory to WiHi this year. The team showed consistent spirit and ability throughout, and this consistency took them to second place in the Bayside Conference, third place in the District, and ninth place in the State competition. Captains Duane Close, Ed Taylor, and Mel Williams proved their abilities. Mel went to State, and ended up with an 18-4-1 overall record. Duane Close and Ed Taylor achieved fourth places at State and Jeff Malcom pinned down a 3rd place. Since only three seniors are leaving, WiHi should field a strong team again next year. The J.V.'s also enjoyed an excellent year, ended with a 7-1 record.

This year's boys tennis team had a terrific season. Led by captain and MVP Jeff Parker, the boys only lost 2 of the 14 games. At the District 8 tournament, Jeff Parker ended in 2nd place and advanced to the State tournament. Wright Still and Mike Davis finished 4th for mens' doubles, while the mixed doubles team of Ray Still and Patty Fennell finished 3rd. Since they are only losing senior Wright Still, next year's team should be great.

The best team of the spring season was the boys' track team with an undefeated 9-0 record. The Captains for this year were: Field - Ray Smith, Sprints - Marcel Slemmons, Middle Distance - Ed Taylor, and Distance - Rick Ellwanger. In the State meet, Bert King placed second in the long jump and sixth in the 100-meter dash. This year's MVP, Jeff Stewart, placed fifth in the triple jump. Next year's team hopes to be just as great.

The girls' track team also had an undefeated season with a 5-0 record. The girls were led by MVP Joyce Rieben. In the North Carolina Invitational, the team placed first out of twelve schools. They also beat JMB and Parkside to take the County meet. In the Region IV meet, they once again placed first, beating six other schools to go on and place sixth at the State meet. Although they are losing the seniors, the team hopes to do another terrific job next year.

It was a very "cheerful" year for the 1979-80 Varsity Cheerleading squad. They swung it to the left and swung it to the right at football games, rode their "kawasocki's" at the soccer games, and let those funky chickens loose at the basketball games.

The cheerleaders did their best to lead Wi Hi's many athletic teams on to victory and stood behind them when they were defeated.

It all began this summer at the Naval Academy. There, the cheerleaders put in four hard days of learning and competition. The hard work paid off, for they received the award for the most spirited and friendliest cheerleading squad. They also won second place at the Downtown Plaza competition.

Captain of the "A" squad was Carole Wells, and Co-captain was Patty Fennell. Captain of the "B" squad was Lisa Griffith, and Co-captain was Sandy Keyes.

A fine rah, rah, rah, for Carole Wells, Susan Cherry, Trudi White, Patty Fennell, and Sandy Keyes who will be graduating this year.

The Junior Varsity cheerleading squad proved to be very successful, for it was everyone's first year of cheering. This year we had ten members on the squad. Before even practicing, the captain, Carol Bean, and the co-captain, Barbi Beach, were chosen by the squad members. Summer practices began soon after school ended last spring. The Varsity was a great help to us, especially preparing for camp. In August, we attended the U.S.C.A. cheerleading camp at the Naval Academy. Eight of our J.V. cheerleaders attended and had to compete with other Varsity squads, including our own. Nevertheless, we won a 5th place ribbon. In the Downtown Plaza competition, we won third place. We also competed once at Kings Dominion. During Homecoming, we sold hats, buttons and clickers along with the shakers & programs that we sold at every game.

AFS - the American Field Service - has been an active organization for many years. During the past year, three WiHi students lived for a year in other parts of the world. Debbie Close, class of '79, spent a tremendous year in Japan, Abigail Rickert lived one wonderful (and dangerous) year in Thailand, and Susan Riley spent a year learning how to live "down under" - in Australia. In addition, we have the pleasure of Jun Tamai of Japan in Wi Hi this year.

The club officers are: president - Tammy Myer, vice-president - Donna Collins, secretary - Christi Long, treasurer - Dan Nelson, publicity - Greg Wilkerson, ways and means - Marty Blakeney, and membership - Fay Hitchens. Their purposes are to help orient students visiting WiHi and to broaden their own experiences through contact with peoples of other cultures.

DECA has been on the move this year with fund raisers, the Regional Conference, the MADECA Career Development Conference, as well as local club activities. The Senior Class Fair was held September 22, 1979. DECA participated by setting up a booth and selling T-shirts with decals.

On October 14, 1979, the club had a bonfire at Assateague. Everyone had a great time. On October 28, 1979, DECA held a party at Holly Center for the residents. Homecoming arrived, and with it DECA proudly presented its float with our slogan for the year, "DECA Is the Real Gold" written on a gold medal.

In February, the Regional Competitions were held at the Delmarva Convention Hall. Our club made a very fine showing. The club entered six people and came home with 8 trophies.

The winners were as follows:

Terri Mills - 1st place - Fashion Coordination

2nd place Income tax

Wade Wootten - 2nd place - Petroleum - Owner/Manager level

Kathy Judy - 1st place - Fashion Coordination

2nd place - Retail math

Penny Groton - 3rd place - Income tax

Jeff Chew - 2nd place - General Merchandising - Owner/Manager level

Colleen Bostick - 1st-Gift wrapping

With March came the MADECA Career Development Conference. The Conference was held at the Hunt Valley Inn near Baltimore. The club had winners in 3 events.

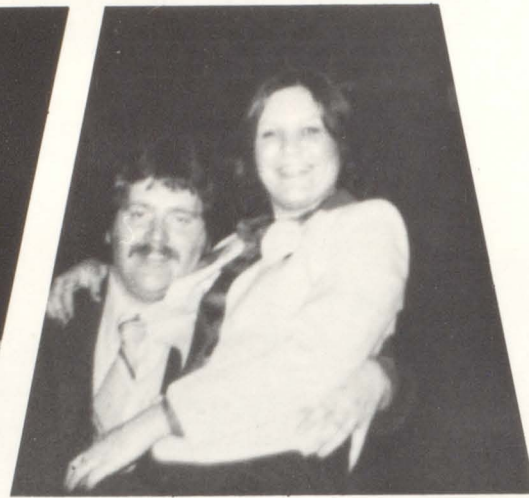

Terri Mills and Kathy Judy won 1st place in the state, in Fashion Coordination. Jeff Chew brought home 3rd place in the State in General Merchandising, and Wade Wootten received Honorable Mention in Petroleum - Owner/Manager level.

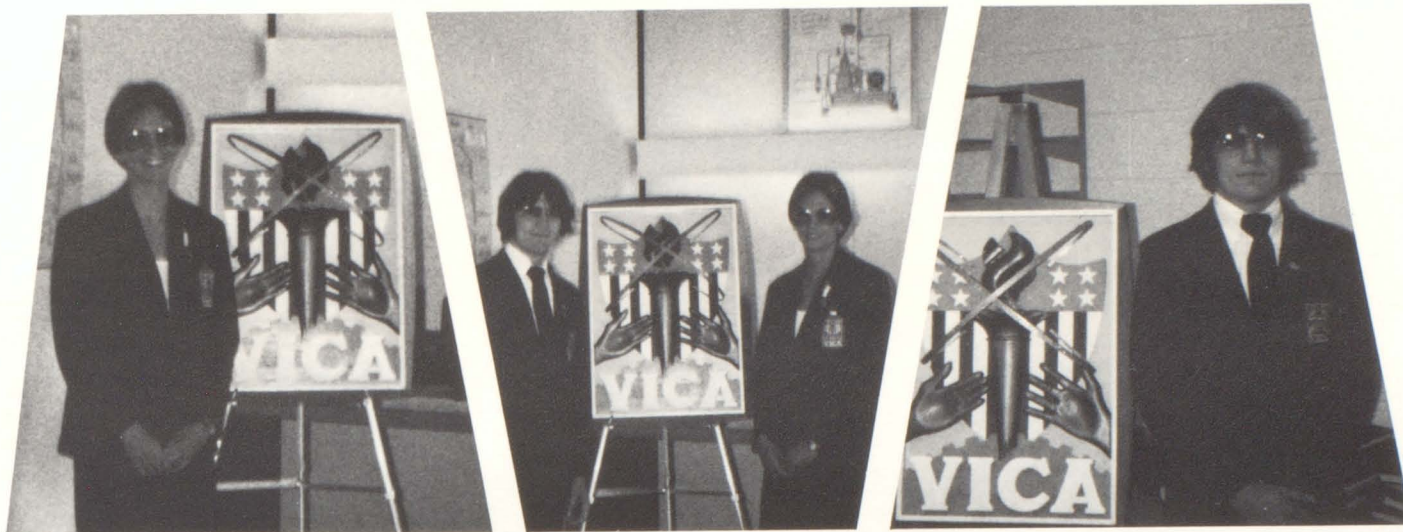

On April 29, 1980, DE II students attended this years' Employer-Employee Banquet held at Parkside Senior High School. Employers were presented with certificates of appreciation.

The Senior class of DECA wish to thank coordinators Mr. Ed Radolan, Mrs. C. J. Whyte, and Mr. Steve Brewer.

Good luck in the future, DECA.

VICA has a good year

The VICA program expanded again this year with more and larger competitions, and WI-HI students did well in all of them. State competition took place in April in Frederick. WI-HI winners were: Laverne Wilson, Sandy Keyes, and Sam Windsor earned first places in Club Business Procedure; Bryan Travis took first place in Industrial Electronics; Trudi White captured third in Cosmetology, and Bill Davenport won third place in masonry. These winners will compete in the National VICA competition to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, in June.

toilet paper holders in the bathrooms, and even a new ceiling in the yearbook room. Students stood around wondering what was going on.

Finally, in March, the team of over twenty members arrived. They came from public and private schools in Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Virginia. They spent three days at WiHi poking into corners and cabinets, talking to students and asking endless questions. Before they left, the chairman announced to evaluation

Evaluation? What's that? Is it anything like a final exam? In a way, it is. Every ten years, every school in the Mid-Atlantic area is evaluated by a team of teachers and administrators. The result of the evaluation is a re-accreditation of each school. Since all colleges only accept graduates of accredited high schools, it is an important procedure. This year it was our turn, and the summer and school year was spent in a flurry of fix-up, paint-up, and sometimes patch-up activities. Teachers rewrote courses, cleaned closets, and planned extensively. Custodians rushed around installing new windows in breezeways, new the school at large how much he had enjoyed our school and our students. Heard at random from a committee member was this remark: "We'll go along with that!"

There was a P.S. to evaluation. Students and faculty alike wondered for weeks whether all the new improvements would disappear in a puff of smoke once evaluation was over. P.P.S. - they didn't.

This year's Homecoming, reflecting the 1980 Olympics, was a year of firsts: the Sophomores burst into the 80's by winning the float competition with "Wi-Hi Takes the Gold". For the second year in a row, the class of 1980 won the spirit chain. At the pep rally, seniors came in first as the rowdiest class, the cheerleaders swayed the beat of their cheer in a rocking pyramid, and the yearbook staff released 300 balloons into the air. Also, the junior class was represented by three Homecoming attendants, due to a tie vote.

The day arrived crisp and clear, giving Wi-Hi a sense of confidence. The Homecoming attendants rode onto the field in antique cars loaned to us by the Antique Car Club. It was a most impressive sight.

HOMEcoming

Sophomores' winning entry: WiHi takes the gold.

Bursts of applause were heard as Carol Wells was crowned Homecoming Queen by last year's queen, Molly McGinty. Carol was escorted by her father. Her court consisted of: Senior attendants - Joyce Hall and Deshirl Rankins; Junior attendants - Sherri Corbin, Tammy Myer, and Kristi Richins; Sophomore attendants - Connie Hoprich and Jenny Trivits; Freshman attendants - Rondolyn Johnson and Ruth Richins.

When half-time rolled around in the game, Wi-Hi was in the lead by a wide margin. But, as the game came to an close Wi-Hi fell behind, losing 12-21. Despite this loss, everyone left with high spirits in anticipation of the dance that night.

The Seniors won a close second in the float competition with an Olympic runner lighting the torch at the Collossium. The Junior's float, "Let's Get Fired up," came in 3rd place as the WiHi football player climbed up to light the torch with the help of "unseen mechanisms". The Freshmen came in 4th place with a salute to the 1980 Olympics. Setting a new precedent, the Honor Society entered the winning club float "WiHi Excels". First place in the banner competition went to the Art Club with their outstanding slogan "WiHi takes the Gold". Mr. Burgess won the Jinx Day competition with his outfit of black and orange. Jeff Malcom charmed the most girls into giving up their "I resist" buttons, and winning the title of "Mr. Irresistible." Teena Smith won the Color Day competition with her spirited outfit of blue and gold.

Getting ready . . .

The cheerleaders got everyone fired up at the pep rally on Friday afternoon. John Massey, alias "Wild Bill" showed up at the game to cheer the Wi-Hi players on. Rick Ellwanger led the Homecoming Parade carrying the Olympic torch.

The Homecoming Committee did an outstanding job in preparing for the day's activities. Special recognition goes to the members of this committee: Sherri Bennett (Chairman), Tom Campbell, Martha Brown, Pam Disharoon, Joyce Hall, Gayle Bowden, Vernon Rhock, Bill Chandler, Pam McGlothlin, Gracie Hall, and Sue McCabe.

For some, May 9, 1980 was just another Friday night, but for the Senior class of 1980 it was a night they have prepared for and awaited for a long time.

Prom committees were formed in the early spring to start organizing for one of the most important nights of a senior's year. Many preparations had to be made such as ordering programs, favors, and constructing the backdrops. As usual, we were scurrying around working hard and fast to get things done. The main attraction was the star-studded suspended ball which sparkled to the beat of the music. Other decorations included silver streamers, roses, and wall murals of a garden scene. All these enhanced the setting and helped create an atmosphere which will never be forgotten.

And then the night came.

As we entered, couples crossed the arched wooden bridge into a land of moonlight and roses. We were greeted with a program, and the girls were surprised with a little silver rose as a token of the evening.

The excitement mounted as the senior class officers led the Grand March beginning at 9:00 p.m. Mr. Evans recognized every couple as we paraded proudly through the rose trellis and down the center to the music of the class song "Let's All Live and Give Together."

Early in the evening, we had our portraits taken and were given favors, a goblet, which will all help to preserve the memories of that special evening.

Crossroads, straight from Baltimore, kept the evening lively with their variety of music including Top 40, disco, and rock. The guests danced, socialized, and partied throughout the evening, enjoying every minute of it.

The affair wasn't over yet as everyone changed for a more casual atmosphere at the prom breakfast/dance. Crossroads continued to play on through the breakfast until three o'clock.

For a few seniors, the parties lasted until the morning light, and so, the Senior prom of 1980 was truly a night of moonlight and roses which will be remembered by everyone.

old seniors, new graduates . . .

And so it has come to an end. Twelve long years (or short ones, depending on the point of view) - years of happiness, frustration, preparation, avoiding homework, doctors' excuses - everything. It's over. It's gone. But the ending was just what it should have been. One final night to march as a class; to listen to Mr. Evans' words of wisdom; to be a member of a class.

On Thursday, May 29, we gathered at the new Civic Center - excited, nervous, hardly knowing whether to laugh or cry, but most of all proud.

Baccalaureate was behind us. We had listened to Reverend Frederick Shaffner ask us whether we really were ready to begin, and challenge us to begin. We had crossed the bridge to a land of Moonlight and Roses at the Prom. We had been honored by the Juniors at the Junior-Senior Banquet - and we had laid out more money than we had planned on. All of these things led up to this night.

"Pomp and Circumstance" began, and 269 of us started our last walk together. Parents, friends, relatives and faculty watched and shared our pride. It was a long walk.

Class officers contributed to the ceremonies, and the concert band and concert choir added dignity and solemnity to the evening.

Finally, we started across the stage as Mr. Evans read each name clearly and loudly. What feelings we had when Mrs. LesCallette, vice-president of the Board of Education, handed us those diplomas! Is it really over? Is there really a diploma inside the folder? The first thing we did after sitting down was to check whether the names on the diplomas were right.

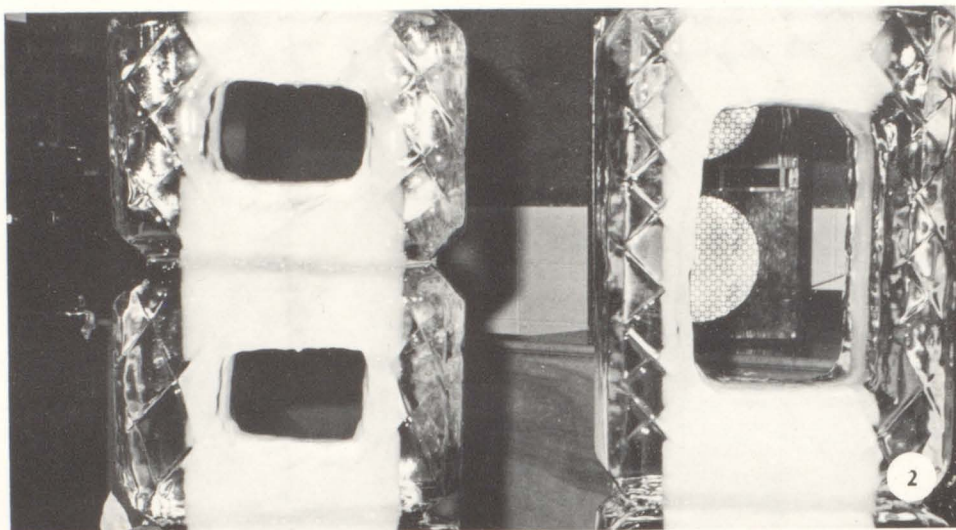

When President Ies Jones gave his farewell speech and we stumbled through the Alma Mater, we suddenly realized that a whole part of our lives was completed. We were different from the excited seniors who had marched in. We were graduates now, and "ready to begin"

Dr. Roy L. Hill, professor of English at Alabama State University, arrived at Wi Hi in early December. Dr. Hill visited several English classes here and shared his thoughts on his creative process as well as his works with us. He has written and published several things. Among them are books of poems, biographies, and short stories.

*drug program

This year here at WiHi, a strong emphasis was placed on deterring drug and alcohol abuse. Students were given information through several types of media. Announcements over the P.A. system, articles in the school and local newspapers, and posters throughout the halls advertized a Drug and Alcohol Center set up to provide free, accurate, current, and objective information to students and faculty alike. The center contained booklets, pamphlets, and reports which students used for personal reasons and to write research papers. The material was available strictly on a no-questions-asked basis. A number of students took advantage of the opportunity to learn the real "low down" on drugs and alcohol.

Mr. William C. Johnson is retiring this year after twenty-six years of teaching in Wicomico County. Literally thousands of students have learned the XYZ's of U.S. History under Mr. Johnson's direction. He has been a smiling face, an encouraging word, and a staunch friend to students and colleagues alike. He has travelled through most of the United States and plans to do it all again now that school is out for him. He will be living in Washington, D.C., where he can indulge his love of the theater. Good Luck, Mr. Johnson, you will be missed.

Mr. Robert Majors is also retiring this year after twenty-six years of teaching both junior high and senior high levels in Wicomico County. A veteran, Mr. Majors has guided, directed, and aided many, many students through various science courses. Hunting is a favorite pastime with Mr. Majors, and he'll have the time now to chase the deer, rabbits, or whatever, to his hear's content. He also plans to devote part of his time to working with wood. All this sounds like a full life, but Mr. Majors may also enter some other field of endeavor. Whatever you plan for your future, Mr. Majors, we wish you well.

DRAMA IS ALIVE!

Plays! Plays! Plays! The Drama Department of Wi-Hi has been very active this year in putting on performances of all kinds. The year opened with the senior class play, "Stage Door," which was presented in November. This play, which also had of juniors because of the large cast required, was a big success. Tricia McLeod, the lead, portrayed an actress trying to become famous in the Big Apple of New York. The supporting actress, Patty Fennell, portrayed a glamorous blonde who became a movie star. Congratulations to Tricia and the whole cast on a play well done. The second play performed was "The Marriage Bit," by the Speech and Drama II class. The leading actress, Martha Brown, and the leading actor, Tyrone Bullock, portrayed college sweethearts facing the big step of marriage. This play, done by an experienced cast, was excellently performed. The third production was, in reality, a series of plays performed by the Speech and Drama II classes. The three plays that were performed were: "It's About Time," "Nobody Believes in Witches," and "Mr. Grump and the Clown." These plays were performed for elementary students all over the county. Everyone involved had a great time and want to thank Mrs. Julia Taylor for getting them out of so many classes. The last play to be presented consisted of two one-act performances. They were entitled "The Right Kind of House" starring Martha Brown and Eric Peterson, and "The Haunted Auditorium," starring Carole Wells and Tom Campbell. The play was presented on May 1, at 7:30 in the Wi-Hi Auditorium and it ended the drama year with a large success!
